DARTMOUTH DOWNS SYRACUSE, 40 TO 0

New Englanders' Goal Line Only Once in Danger, and That Not Long.

GAME VERY MACHINELIKE

Boston, Nov. 21 .- Dartmouth's footteam smothered Syracuse at Fenway Park this afternoon, 40 to 0. Although a crowd of about 18,000 welcomed the Green team upon its return to Boston, including hundreds of Boston girls, and rival cheering sections hurled songs and yells at each other, there was no glamour to the game. The Green team went about the business of bringing its point total for the last three weeks of the season up to 149 to none for the opponents in a manner which subordinated individual brilliance to team efficiency.

There was no one particular star. and minute. If there was any fault in its game it was that the mechanical accuracy robbed the play of half 43 thrills. In the first period the rival elevens felt each other out for nearly ten minutes, exchanging kicks on the first or second down. Curtis for Dartmouth was fully up to his last year's form and the Green gained from ten to fifteen yards on his long elusive spirals. Both teams uncorked a shower of passes early in the game, most of which boomeranged into an opponent's arms.

spicuous by its absence. While Western Maryland has by no means an excellent team it is excellently trained. It gained distance on straight football, going the Hopkins line and more often around the ends for gains. For the latter a shift play was used which had the Hopkins line puzzled. The open play of the home team didn't work, and several times resulted in positive losses. The lineup:

same, most of which boomeranged into an opponent's arms.

Dartmouth's first score came as a result of a twenty-five yard run back of a kick by Ghee. He landed the ball on the 25 yard line, and Murdock am Whitney got through for eight apiece Curtis jugsfed the ball, but Spears felon it on the 3 yard line. On the new on it on the 3 yard line. On the nex play Whitney had a big margin o safety in his touchdown. Curtis kicked his goal, and the Dart mouth team set a good average by getting every attempt at a goal from touchdow, which could be kicked. Two of the scores were followed by bad puntouts, and there was no trial.

Line plunging brought another score in the first half, after Whitney had intercepted a pass to afford the opportunity. Murdock and Whitney tore down the field from the 25 yard line, where the ball had been recovered, and when the Syracuse line had been drawn in to cover another of the plunges Curis out around right end without any opposition. That ended the scoring for the first half.

After tearing down the field to the 20 yard line Dartmouth was offside twice, and Syracuse held for downs. The visitors tried to put a punch into their attack

Dartmouth took the ball from the las man, who had let it slip. Little Ghee wa there again for thirty yards and Curticut inside of tackle for a touchdown.

Two scores were the result of lon passes, one from Ghee to Perry and an other from Cumisky to Winship. Cumisky stole through the centre of the line for the last sore.

Ghee, Whitney and Spears seemed to loom up strongers for Dartmouth. Rose did his best for Syracuse and O'Connell played a hard game. The lineup:

Washington and Jefferson Rough Game, 14 to 6,

Washington, Nov. 21.—Georgetown put up a stubborn game against Washington and Jefferson to-day, losing by 14 to 6. The contest was marred by rough work and the frequent penalties inflicted on the visitors during the final quarter enabled Georgetown to score a touchdown. In the first half Georgetown outplayed the big Washington and Jefferson growd. In the first half Georgetown outplayed the big Washington and Jefferson crowd, but was unable to score. In the third perfod the visitors got in a number of forward passes for good gains, and McCreight was shoved over for a touchdown. Three minutes later Young shot through the line and ran forty-seven yards for Washington and Jefferson's other score. The lineup:

FORDHAM'S FUMBLES WESLEYAN, 28 TO 13, ARE NOT TOO COSTLY

Maroons Twice Go Over Boston Slow Game on Soggy Ohio Field College Line and Win by 14 to 8 Score.

Boston College was defeated in easy fashion by Fordham University on Fordham Field yesterday. The visitors secured but 8 points, while the Maroon scored 14 and lost at least four likely touchdowns by inexcusable fumbling. The Boston College tally was unusual in the fact that when Maloney kicked a goal from the 40 yard line the pigskin landed on the inside of the right side post, bounced on the crossbar, wavered an instant and then fell behind the goal line in valid territory. The Maroons did not play up to their usual form, but this was overlooked when several of the longest runs and passes of forty yards by Dunn and Regan brought the spectators to their feet and netted many yards for Fordham. Yule scored both touchdawn.

to the Beanesters' goal begin. Mor-cauldt made fifteen yards on a pass from Dunn. Carrying the ball Dunn made thirty yards in a trio of similar plays around the visitors' wings. It took the Marcon four downs to make the last eight Marcon four downs to make the last eight yards, but Yule was equal to the final plunge and scored.

The final quarter found the Marcon in command and three scores should have been made, as Fordham fumbled three times in the region of Boston's 10 yard line. A streak of wide shifts and passes of twenty to forty yards, Regan and Dunn doing the attack, enabled the Marcon to sweep the field on at least a dozen occasions, but Fordham fumbled in feeble efforts when a plunge would have scored. Boston passed the ball in a quintet formation on several occasions that was good for twenty yards, but the secondary defence of Fordham nailed every pass.

Left Tackle Mulcahy on Fordham's line received a painful sprain of the ankle in yard mark.

CORNELL FRESHMEN BLANKED. Forced to Play on Defensive as Per Youngsters Score 14.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—The University of Pennsylvania freshman football team showed the Penn varsity the way to treat Cornell on Thanksgiving Day by defeating the Cornell first year men, 14 to 0, this afternoon on Franklin Field. The Cornell youngsters had one chance to score in the first period, but were forced to play a defensive game the remainder of the time.

Through an exchange of punts in the opening period Cornell received the ball on Penn's 35 yard line. Benedict took it around right end for 25 yards on a double pasa. Hill placed the ball on the 3 yard line by a plunge through mackle, but Benedict fumbled on the next play and Welsh recovered the ball for Penn.

Thereafter the game was all Penn's, although Cornell fought hard all the way.

STRENGTH WITHOUT EXCESS WEIGHT FOUR Oldsmobile

INCLUDES DELCO STARTING AND LIGHTING SYSTEM.

WE emphasize this remarkable car as a "LIGHT FOUR." It has Sturdiness, Stanchness, Strength in every line, but NOT an OUNCE OF EXCESS WEIGHT. Run it on the scale and it shows less than 2,500 pounds, shipping weight.

Only an organization with the knowledge and experience that come with years of building only to a quality standard could hope to reach this result.

East Norwich Frozen Ground. East Norwich, L. I., Nov. 21.—Prozen ground prevented the Meadow Brow, hounds this afternoon from running down a large red fox which they had jumped after trying for some time to pick up a scent. The country had been drawn all about the vicinity of East Norwich before the hounds finally showed a sir of there being any quarry. Within ten minutes the fox was driven to view on top of a hill just ahead of the pack. The fox ran for half an hour and then was driven to earth on the Columbia steep.

Haverond. Pa., Nov. 21.—Haverford and Swarthmore football gladiators fought a soul stirring gridiron battle this afternoon, the game ending in a 2 to 3 tie core. The honor of scoring fell to Capt. Carey of Haverford and A. Cornog of Swarthmore, who kicked his field goal from his for the game ended. Capt. Carey of Haverford made his field goal from his 10 yard line in the third period.

Despite the fact that Swarthmore outweighted her opponents the Garnet players were unable to gain on line plunges and end runs. Her score was due to a series of well executed forward passes, which were put into play when defeat was imfaced the New Hochelle Yacht Club's trans and the players of the New Hochelle Yacht Club's trans and in Church. It was shoulder to shoulder all through the last lap and the anchors of the two teams finished abreast, so that the budges had to declare a dead heat.
